Build Unforgettable Emotional Connections Through the Art of Storytelling

The Power of the Story

Have you ever sat spell-bound listening to a speaker, completely engaged and connected, wondering what made their presentation so compelling? For those interested in discovering a tool that will positively impact and motivate an audience, increase speaking engagements and product sales, then it is essential to learn the art of storytelling. This is key to your success as a communicator.

Geoffrey Berwind is one of the world's foremost experts on how to use the power of story to make beneficial connections with your clients, team, and audiences. Clients include: The National Park Service, Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex, Audubon Society, Vanguard Charitable, Bradley Communications, Villanova University and many others.

Geoffrey's interest in storytelling began in 1999 when he founded and ran an innovative theater in suburban Philadelphia. This led to an invitation to join the leadership team tasked with creating the award-winning Once Upon a Nation storytelling project for Historic Philadelphia, Inc. Geoffrey was their first Artistic and Storytelling Director, responsible for training numerous front-line staff to share American history in fresh and innovative ways – through storytelling! Witnessing the enthusiastic reaction by thousands of tourists, Geoffrey honed his techniques creating his own unique blueprint for crafting and presenting memorable real-life stories.

Geoffrey Berwind has coached thousands of authors, business owners and speakers through workshops, speeches and training worldwide.

If you're ready to get your message out to the world in the most authentic, engaging way possible, Geoffrey Berwind is the training expert you're looking for!

What Others are Saying:

"Geoffrey! I just gave the same presentation I've given for a while now, but this time I started it with the story you and I crafted. It was incredible! I instantly sold twice as many books and got my first standing ovation. After I finished, people rushed up to me saying 'I loved your story!"
